Broyles Award Recognizes 2020 High School Assistant Coach of the Year in Arkansas

Kirk Bock, assistant HC/OC Bryant High School

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. – [Apr 6, 2021] –

Today at noon the Broyles Award will recognize Bryant High School's assistant head coach and offensive coordinator Kirk Bock. Coach Bock was the 2020 High School Broyles Award winner for the state of Arkansas. Due to COVID-19 restrictions the Broyles Award was unable to present the plaque to Coach Bock last year. The recognition will be held at Hornet Arena.

"It's a special day for us to recognize Coach Bock, honor his work, and welcome him into the Broyles Award family." – Molly Harrell

Coach Bock is a member of the second class of High School Broyles Award winners.

The goal of the Broyles Award is to honor the top high school assistant coach from every state.
